Resource Management
Technology Management

Online learning is mediated by diverse technologies. Successful online learners are able to use these technologies skillfully and use the following strategies for their technology management.

01

Use search tools to find tutorials for the various technologies

- To learn the tips and tricks of tools
    - Check this website for text-based tutorials
    - Check this YouTube playlist for video-based tutorials

02

Use the help page

- Each software or online application usually provides a help page for its users. You can always find out useful information on these pages

03

Use some basic troubleshooting techniques

- Learn the basic troubleshooting techniques in this website
- When you meet technology problems, don't forget to contact TTU IT Help through email, phone and online chat